

Alexia Dawes

Alexia Dawes is a manager on the State and Local Government affairs team and primarily covers the southeastern region. In this role, she manages the company's interactions with state and local elected officials and is responsible for government relations strategy in the region.

Prior to joining the Northrop Grumman team in 2019, Ms. Dawes served as the Legislative Affairs Director at the Florida Department of Management Services. In this role, she was responsible for guiding the Department's legislative strategy and managed the implementation of all legislation affecting the agency. Ms. Dawes also served as the Deputy Legislative Affairs Director at the Florida Department of Economic Opportunity where she supported the legislative affairs director in developing legislative strategy. Additionally, she managed the agency's external affairs including planning and traveling with the agency Director to represent the agency across Florida.

Ms. Dawes earned her master's degree in applied American politics and policy as well as her bachelor's degree in political science and applied economics from The Florida State University.

As a sixth generation Floridian, Alexia enjoys life in beautiful North Florida. She is proud to be based at the company's St. Augustine facility.

Northrop Grumman solves the toughest problems in space, aeronautics, defense and cyberspace to meet the ever-evolving needs of our customers worldwide. Our 90,000 employees define possible every day using science, technology and engineering to create and deliver advanced systems, products and services.