

Kevin McCall

Mr. McCall serves as an integral member of the EEI Leadership Team. As Chief Operations Officer he is responsible for managing all hands-on operational aspects of the company including strategic planning, efficient resource allocation, establishment of new and improvements to existing operational processes, implementing company strategy, managing departmental operational goals, and ensuring overall organizational activities are aligned with contractual and legal compliance.