

D'Anna Stanfield Tindal

D'Anna Stanfield Tindal is Corporate Vice President of Government Relations at L3 Technologies, a global aerospace and national security company with 2016 sales of $10.5 billion that employs approximately 38,000 people worldwide.

Ms. Tindal has more than 30 years of experience working with the U.S. Congress - specializing in aerospace and defense (A&D) industry issues. Ms. Tindal joined L3 in July 2013 where she has successfully increased the L3 stature with Congress and among peers by building a strong fabric of Congressional awareness and support for all L3 Divisions and programs. Ms. Tindal coordinates with L3 Segments to make Congressional visits a bi-annual priority in conjunction with BD trips to Washington, DC. Ms. Tindal also advocates for robust two-way communication between L3 employees and their Congressional Representatives and Senators through Congressional facility visits, employee newsletters and face-to-face meetings on the Hill and at area trade shows.

Prior to joining L3, she was President of Stanfield Tindal, Inc., a consulting services firm where she was solely responsible for the creation and implementation of successful Congressional strategies for companies including: ReconOptical, Inc.; Robertson Fuel Systems; and Quickset International. She also worked on the Congressional teams for companies including: Goodrich; Moog; and UTC.

Ms. Tindal was recruited into the Congressional world when she interviewed Congressman Wilson at the NBC Affiliate KJAC-TV in Port Arthur, TX where she hosted the Noon Talk Show and Co-Anchored the Evening News. A former Defense, Foreign Operations and Military Appropriations Staff, Ms. Tindal worked in the office of Congressman Charles Wilson, TX during his efforts to halt the Soviet incursion into Afghanistan.

Ms. Tindal is honored to serve on with the Board of Directors for the Florida Defense Contractors Association (FDCA) where she hopes to help build winning strategies for all members – small businesses and primes. Ms. Tindal is a member of National Defense Industrial Association (NDIA), the Association of the United States Army (AUSA), the 302Bs, an organization of former Congressional Appropriations staff and is an executive committee member for an organization of women in the Congressional defense world.
